Spiritual Notes:

Naaman, the cured leper in Kings, returns to Elisha and declares that "there is no God in all the earth, except in Israel." His offer of a gift is refused so he asks for two mule-loads of earth" to bring back to his country, Aram. There he will "offer holocaust of sacrifice" exclusively to the Lord, the God of Israel, acknowledging that He is Lord of all the earth. In Second Timothy today we are called to be faithful to Christ; we might be imprisoned for the sake of the gospels, but the word of God is not chained. Because we are united with Jesus in Baptism we shall also live with Him. Many in the early church suffered, even to the point of chains, like a criminal, knowing that God would not abandon them. We are called to persevere as they did. Our last verse today holds out hope for those who have been "unfaithful;" Christ's offer of forgiveness stands firm. The healing of the 10 lepers reminds us of God's grace and our obligation to be grateful. Continuing on "His journey to Jerusalem" the city of death in Luke, Jesus encounters the lepers crying, "Have pity on us!" Their condition requires them to remain apart from others; they are outcasts. As such, they are an example in Luke of those whom Jesus focuses on in His ministry. Without narrating the actual miracle, Luke tells us that Jesus ordered them to "show yourselves to the priests," as commanded by the Law of Moses, sacred of both Jews and Samaritans. Luke tells us that only one of them returned to thank Jesus, and "he was a Samaritan." Like him, we should never be too busy to thank God for our blessings.

For Reflection: Does my prayer include gratitude along with petition? How can I bring Christ's presence to the lepers of today's society?

St. Joseph Cemetery: All summer flowers and pots must be removed from the cemetery, no later than Monday, October 17th or they will be removed for you. If you are unable to do so, please call Don in the Parish Office.

During the month of October, the St. Joseph L.C.B.A. Chapter 867 will be collecting new socks, hats, gloves and mittens for a special Share-A-Christmas program. There are plastic bins in the Bell Tower and the Vestibule.

Please remember in your prayers, all the sick, homebound, and recovering in our parish. Also, pray for those coping with physical or mental conditions.

The Jubilee Year of Mercy December 8, 2015-November 20, 2016

"It is a favorable time to heal wounds, a time to offer everyone the way of Forgiveness and Reconciliation." -

Pope Francis

Holy Year of Mercy:

Suffering, illness and death are a persistent mystery to the human race. This mystery has perplexed, confounded and angered humanity from the beginning. While Adam and Eve were faithful and obedient to God, He personally resided in their souls and preserved them from suffering, illness and death. When our first parents foolishly acted to become their own gods and rebelled, the all-holy God left their souls and they became subject to all the laws of nature. Their offspring inherited this damaged and fallen condition. Suffering, illness and death are the outcomes of moral evils introduced into the human race by the original sin and humanity's ongoing sinfulness. Sin has serious disruptive consequences that are not just spiritual, but are also physical in the human family. But God in His mercy always draws good out of evil for our benefit. He does not want us to carry this burden alone. Jesus announced that healing was included in the Kingdom (Mt. 11:2-6). The healing of bodies and souls is a sign that God still dwells with His people (cf. Mk. 16:17-18; Mt. 28:20; Rv. 21:1-4). The Gospels constantly show Jesus as healing illnesses, forgiving sins, alleviating suffering, and raising the dead to life. In His Church, Jesus still acts to heal His people through the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. In this Sacrament, Christ is with us in suffering, illness and death and makes them, like his own suffering and death, an avenue to sanctity and life eternal.

Mercy grows within us as we reflect on how God has been merciful to us.

New Philadelphia, Food Pantry

Since its beginning in the basement of the Salvation Army building in January 2008, the Food Pantry has undergone significant change. Thanks to the financial support of the community, including St. Joseph Parish, and the volunteer efforts of countless individuals, and the availability of the Akron Canton Regional Food Bank, the Dover New Philadelphia Food Pantry is making a critical difference in the lives of those in need in our area. The food pantry has grown from helping 100 families a week with 15 pounds of food to serving 600 families with 65 pounds of food a week. And most importantly from being a small player to a major force in fighting the war against hunger in the Tuscarawas Valley. Thank you again for your support, and making a critical difference to those in need of food in our area!

M O V E D B Y M E R C Y

We are called to show mercy because mercy has first been shown to us.

P O P E F R A N C I S

He lay helpless and alone on the roadside, half dead from the robbers' merciless beating. Two travelers came upon the injured man, but rather than offer assistance, they simply avoided him. Finally, a third passerby "was moved with compassion at the sight" of him (Luke 10:33) and went out of his way to help.

In the Parable of the Good Samaritan, we can see ourselves in each person. Like the robbers, we have hurt others. Like the priest and the Levite, we have failed to show compassion. Like the injured traveler, we have suffered in body and spirit, feeling rejected and alone. Yet God never stops offering each of us his mercy, "a concrete reality with which he reveals his love" (MV 6).

We have been treated with mercy ourselves, and Jesus tells us to "go and do likewise" (Luke 10:37), giving us the roadmap of the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy.

Each person "has a place in God's heart from all eternity" (AL 168). Within this context, Pope Francis reminds us, "we are called to protect our humanity, and this means, in the first place, accepting it and respecting it as it was created" (AL 56).

Like the Good Samaritan, may we always treat each person with merciful love and respect that affirms the gift of his or her life.

Notas Espirituales:

Naamán, el leproso curado en Reyes, vuelve a Eliseo y dice "Ahora sé que no hay más Dios en toda la tierra que el de Israel," El ofrecimiento de un regalo no lo aceptó, por lo que pide "un par de mulas cargadas de tierra" para traer de vuelta a su país, Siria. Él "ofrece holocausto o sacrificio" exclusivamente al Señor, el Dios de Israel, reconociendo que él es el Señor de toda la tierra.

En Segunda de Timoteo hoy estamos llamados a ser fieles a Cristo, podemos ser encarcelados por causa del evangelio, pero "la palabra de Dios no está encadenada." Porque estamos unidos con Jesús en el bautismo," también viviremos con él." Muchos en la iglesia primitiva sufrieron," incluso hasta el punto de las cadenas como un criminal," sabiendo que Dios no los abandonaría. Estamos llamados a perseverar como lo hicieron. Nuestro último versículo de hoy mantiene la esperanza para aquellos que han sido "infiel": el ofrecimiento del perdón de Cristo se mantiene firme.

La curación de los diez leprosos nos recuerda la gracia de Dios y nuestra obligación de ser agradecidos. Continuando con "su viaje a Jerusalén," la ciudad de la muerte de Lucas, Jesús encuentra a los leprosos llorando," ¡Ten piedad de nosotros!" Su condición requiere que se mantengan separados de los demás, porque son marginados. Como tales, son un ejemplo en Lucas de aquellos a quienes Jesús se centra en su ministerio. Sin narrar el milagro real, Lucas nos cuenta que Jesús les ordenó "vayan preséntense a los sacerdotes," según lo ordenado por la Ley de Moisés, sagrados para ambos Judíos y samaritanos. Lucas nos dice que sólo uno de ellos regresó a darle gracias a Jesús, y "ese era un Samaritano." Al igual que él, no debemos estar demasiado ocupados para agradecer a Dios por nuestras bendiciones.

Para reflexionar: ¿Mi oración incluye agradecimiento junto con la petición? ¿Cómo puedo traer la presencia de Cristo a los leprosos de la sociedad actual?

Por favor, recuerde en su oración, a todos los enfermos, al salir de casa, y la recuperación de nuestra parroquia. Además, orar por aquellos que sufren de condiciones físicas o mentales.
