Spiritual Notes:

Luke's narration of Pentecost in Acts relates the fulfillment of Jesus's promise that the disciples "will be baptized with the holy Spirit." For Judaism, the feast of Pentecost celebrates the Sinai covenant. In the wilderness, 72 elders were given a share of the spirit that was on Moses and they prophesied. When the Spirit descended on the disciples, they began to speak in different tongues, so that devout Jews from every nation who were in Jerusalem for the feast could understand what they were saying. The Gospel is for all people. Paul tells the Corinthians that the gifts of the Spirit are many. It is the Spirit that enables us to acknowledge that "Jesus is Lord." Through this Spirit, we were all baptized into one. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts, Paul says, but the same Spirit. We should not boast of our gifts as though they were greater than the gifts of others. The Spirit distributes them, to each person as He wishes, and they contribute to all the good of all. For John, the gift of the Spirit is given to the disciples on Easter, on the evening of the first day of the week. Jesus appears to His frightened disciples, showing them His hands and His side, revealing the wounds of His passion and confirming His identity. As the Father has sent Me, so I send you, He says. To be sent is to share in the mission of Christ. Breathing on them, He gives them the Holy Spirit and empowers them to forgive sins. Their fear is transformed into a boldness that enables them to proclaim the Gospel. This gift of the Spirit celebrated on Pentecost, unites us in the life of the Trinity and empowers us to proclaim the good news with our lives as well.

For reflection: Have there been times when I experienced God's Spirit active in my life? What would my life be like without the Holy Spirit?

Please keep in your prayers, James "Jim" Herzig, age 79, who died on Saturday, May 27, 2017. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. Please also, keep him and his family in your prayers.

Notas Espirituales:

La narración de Lucas de Pentecostés en Hechos se refiere al cumplimiento de la promesa de Jesús de que los discípulos "serán bautizados con el Espíritu Santo." Para el judaísmo, la fiesta de Pentecostés celebra la alianza del Sinaí. En el desierto, a 72 ancianos se les dio una parte de "el espíritu que estaba en Moisés" y "profetizaban." Cuando el Espíritu desciende en los discípulos, "comenzaron a hablar en distintas lenguas," por lo que los "Judíos devotos de todas las naciones" que estaban en Jerusalén para la fiesta podían entender lo que decían. El evangelio es para todas las personas.

Pablo dice a los corintios que los dones del Espíritu son muchos. El Espíritu es el que nos permite reconocer que "Jesús es el Señor." A través de este Espíritu "fuimos todos bautizados en un cuerpo" y juntamente unidos con otros en Cristo. "Hay diversidad de dones espirituales," dice Pablo, "pero un mismo Espíritu." No debemos gloriarnos de nuestros dones como si fueran mayores que los dones de los demás. El Espíritu les distribuye "a cada persona como él desea," y contribuyen al bien de todos.

Para Juan el don del Espíritu se les da a los discípulos en Pascua, "en la tarde del primer día de la semana." Jesús se aparece a sus discípulos asustados, mostrándoles "las manos y el costado," dejando al descubierto las heridas de su pasión y confirmando su identidad. "Como el Padre me ha enviado, así también los envío yo," dice. Ser enviados es compartir en la misión de Cristo. Respirando sobre ellos, Él les da el "Espíritu Santo" y les da poder para perdonar los pecados. Su miedo se transforma en una audacia que les permite proclamar el evangelio. Este don del Espíritu Santo, que se celebra el día de Pentecostés, nos une en la vida de la Trinidad y nos da el poder para proclamar las buenas nuevas con nuestras vidas también.

Para reflexionar: ¿Ha habido momentos en que he experimentado el Espíritu de Dios activo en mi vida? ¿Qué sería de mi vida sin el Espíritu Santo?

Por favor, recuerde en su oración, a todos los enfermos, al salir de casa, y la recuperación de nuestra parroquia. Además, orar por aquellos que sufren de condiciones físicas o mentales.
