Your contributions make the mission of St. Joseph Parish possible and keep our parish financially sound.

Thank you for your generosity.

If you know of a friend or family member who is in the hospital, for surgery or due to illness, or is currently homebound, please call the Parish Office and give us the information. Someone will visit them as soon as possible.

Prayer Chain: To place your request on the prayer chain, please call the Parish Office or Charlene Herzig at 330-343-1063.

Please remember in your prayers, all the sick, homebound, and recovering in our parish. Also, pray for those coping with physical or mental conditions.

Spiritual Notes:

We close our liturgical year with the Solemnity of Christ the King, established in 1925 by Pope Pius XI. It serves as a reminder that we as Christians are called to acknowledge Christ as king of our hearts, pledging our lives to Him who gave His life for us. After the death of Saul, Israel's first king, the southern tribes accepted David as king while the northern tribes, known as Israel, refused to accept him for more than seven years. Today's first reading narrates their ultimate acceptance of David when the elders of Israel and David made an arrangement. David's reign is the beginning of the dynasty that will rule in Jerusalem for more than four centuries. After the monarchy ceased, biblical Israel looked to the future with the expectation that God would reestablish his rule with a descendant of David. For us as Christians this hope is fulfilled in Jesus. The letter to the Colossians, thought to have been written by Paul while he was in prison, presents us with an early hymn concerned with Jesus' identity. The beloved Son is the image of the invisible God, we are told and all things were created through Him and for Him. As head of the body of the church, Christ has made peace by the blood of his cross, reconciling us to God. A king dying on the cross is not what the world would expect, but that is how our king saved us. Though the inscription announced Jesus as the King of the Jews, the witnesses to His execution mocked Him as a false king. Only one person is presented as recognizing Jesus' true identity, the good thief, who pleads with Jesus, remember me when you come into the kingdom. And Jesus, whose death means life, promises Him a place in Paradise.

For Reflection: Is Christ central to my life? Do I accept Him as king? How can I better serve my king with my life?

The Parish Office will be closed on Thursday, November 24th and Friday, November 25th in observance of Thanksgiving. If you have an emergency, please call the office and leave a message, someone will return your call.

On November 6, 2016, the following members of our parish received the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Congratulations and God's blessing to you.

A Special Note from Our Deacon-Intern...

I had the opportunity during this past week to reflect upon my ordination which is now only a week away. My classmates and I recently did a "run through" of the Ordination Rite at the Cathedral. It was a beautifully-odd feeling to realize almost a decade of study and formation would be coming to a close. What struck me more, however, was not that this period of preparation was ending but rather, how it began.

One's call to a religious vocation is not his or her own. When a man or woman is called to religious life - whether through the Sacrament of Orders or Sacred Vows - it is a reflection of the faith life of the parish from which he or she has been called. Each offers him or herself as a conduit of faith extending from the local community to the People of God throughout the world. The seeds of faith are sowed in community soil but reaped world-wide to benefit His kingdom which is why it is so important to pray for religious vocations.

Those of you who have been life-long members of the parish have seen throughout the years many young men and women enter religious communities and all of us have been blessed to witness recently the call of faith in the lives of Sr. Maria Ecclesiae and Fr. Tony Davis each of whom exhibit daily the foundations of faith first formed here at St. Joseph Parish.

None of us knows precisely what God has in store for our lives nor where His love will take us when we say "yes" to His call. To this end, I have not been told to which parish I will be assigned; however, I do know this... although I attended Catholic schools, participated in parish life, and received many of the sacraments in a parish outside of the Diocese of Columbus, it is St. Joseph Parish that I call home and from which I have been called to serve. For this - and for you, my parish family - I am eternally grateful.

With the assistance of the Family Life Committee, my wife and I would like to extend our thanks to the parish by hosting a short Cookie and Punch reception next Sunday in the Parish Hall following the 11:00 a.m. Mass. Please stop by and celebrate with us the faith life of St. Joseph Parish and the Sacrament of Holy Orders.

A Mass of Thanksgiving will be celebrated on Thursday, November 24, 2016, at 9:00 a.m. This Mass gives each of us an opportunity to thank God for all that we have; our faith, our family and friends, our health, and all the many blessings we enjoy each day. Each year, this Mass concludes with a special blessing of the foods we will eat at our Thanksgiving Day meal. A table will be set up in front of the church for those foods. The collection at this Mass will be to support our Poor Fund.

Advent Wreath Sign up

Signup sheets for lighting the Advent Wreath Candles is hanging in the Vestibule of the church. All family and friends are encouraged to sign up. The sheets will remain in the Vestibule to give parishioners the opportunity to check your schedules and select the Mass time that is convenient for your family.

Notes from Kevin...

The Peregrine Fund Buckeyes for Sale!

The Peregrine fund is a newer outreach of the Columbus Diocese that supports both the financial cancer burden of individuals within our diocese and ethical cancer research through the OSU Medical Center-specifically the Stefanie Speilman fund. Each parish in the diocese has been asked to help support this fund.

All funds raised throughout the diocese are divided in the following way:

Mount Carmel hospital in Columbus - 20%

- Genesis hospital in Zanesville - 20%
- Trinity Twin City in Dennison - 20%
- Ethical research through the Stefanie Speilman Fund - 20%
- Emergency fund managed through the Columbus Diocese - 20%

With our very own neighbors in the Dennison Uhrichsville area benefitting from this outreach effort, our church has committed to participating. We will be taking orders for Buckeyes. The handmade classic Ohio chocolate and peanut butter sweet will be ready for the OSU/Michigan game scheduled for November 26, 2016. Order forms can be found in the back of the church.

If you are interested in helping with this fundraiser or joining the committee please contact Pam Dummermuth at 330-343-9267.

What can you do today?

"The roots of this call to justice and charity are in the Scriptures, especially in the Hebrew prophets and the life and words of Jesus. . . . Over the last century, these biblical mandates have been explored and expressed in a special way in Catholic Social Teaching. The central message is simple: our faith is profoundly social. We cannot be called truly "Catholic" unless we hear and heed the Church's call to serve those in need and work for justice and peace. We cannot call ourselves followers of Jesus unless we take up his mission of bringing 'good news to the poor, liberty to captives, and new sight to the blind' (cf. Lk 4:18)."

-- U.S. Catholic Bishops, Communities of Salt and Light

Pray

We are called to pray for others. We should keep in our prayers the weakest and most vulnerable members of our society especially the unborn, children, the sick, persons with disabilities, the elderly, the poor and the unemployed, the immigrant and the refugee, and those who suffer from hunger, pain, violence, discrimination, abuse, and neglect. We also are called to pray for those who persecute and hate.

Learn

We are called to proclaim the Gospel. In order to proclaim, we must understand. By reading scripture, studying Catholic social teaching documents, and researching and analyzing issues of today; we will be better prepared to inform others.

Visit the Office for Social Concerns website for documents on Catholic social teaching at www.socialconcerns.colsdioc.org.

Serve

Charity means love. As followers of Christ, we are called to love our neighbor and find ways to help those who are in most need. Our parish communities should be known as places where anyone struggling with life issues can find material and spiritual support.

Encourage others to volunteer at a soup kitchen or as a tutor for GED students. Hold a baby shower for your local crisis pregnancy center. Welcome immigrants and refugees. Visit the elderly. Visit those in prison. Put a book on tape for someone with a visual impairment. Promote anti-poverty programs such as the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. Support collections for Catholic Relief Services and all those who live beyond our parish boundaries.

Advocate

We are called to stand in solidarity with our brothers and sisters. We must be a voice for the voiceless. In the Catholic tradition, responsible citizenship is a virtue; participation in the political process is a moral obligation. Every believer is called to faithful citizenship, to become an informed, active, and responsible participant in the community. A faithful citizen advocates for the needs of the most vulnerable.

Notas Espirituales:

Cerramos nuestro Año litúrgico con la solemnidad de Cristo Rey, fundado en 1925 por el Papa Pío XI. Que sirve como un recordatorio que nosotros, como cristianos estamos llamados a reconocer a Cristo como Rey de nuestros corazones, prometiendo nuestra vida a aquel que dio su vida por nosotros.

Después de la muerte de Saúl, el primer rey de Israel, las tribus del sur aceptaron a David como rey, mientras que las tribus del norte, conocidas como Israel, se negaron a aceptarlo por más de siete años. Primera lectura de hoy nos narra su aceptación definitiva de David, cuando los "ancianos de Israel" y David "hicieron un acuerdo." El reinado de David es el comienzo de una dinastía que gobernará en Jerusalén durante más de cuatro siglos. Después de la monarquía cesada, Israel bíblico miró hacia el futuro con la esperanza de que Dios fuera a restablecer su dominio con un descendiente de David. Para nosotros, como cristianos, esta esperanza se cumplió en Jesús. La carta a los Colosenses, que se cree que fue escrito por Pablo mientras estaba en la cárcel, nos presenta un canto a principios que se trate con la identidad de Jesús. El Hijo amado es "la imagen del Dios invisible," se nos dijo, y "todas las cosas fueron creadas por medio de él y para él." Él es también la "cabeza del cuerpo, que es la iglesia," Cristo ha dado "la paz por medio de la sangre derramada en la cruz," que nos reconcilia con Dios. Un rey moribundo en la cruz no es lo que el mundo espera, pero así es como nuestro rey nos salvó. Aunque la leyenda anunció a Jesús como "el Rey de los Judíos," los testigos de su ejecución se burlaban de él como un rey falso. Sólo una persona se presenta con el reconocimiento de la verdadera identidad de Jesús, el "buen ladrón" que defiende a Jesús, "Acuérdate de mí cuando vengas en tu reino," cuya muerte significa la vida, lo que promete un lugar "en el paraíso."

Para reflexionar: ¿Es Cristo el centro de mi vida? ¿Lo acepto como rey? ¿Cómo puedo servir mejor a mi rey con mi vida?

Por favor, recuerde en su oración, a todos los enfermos, al salir de casa, y la recuperación de nuestra parroquia. Además, orar por aquellos que sufren de condiciones físicas o mentales.
