If you know of a friend or family member who is in the hospital, for surgery or due to illness, or is currently homebound, please call the Parish Office and give us the information. Someone will visit them as soon as possible.

Prayer Chain: To place your request on the Prayer Chain, please call the Parish Office or Charlene Herzig at 330-343-1063.

Pray for the Priest, Deacon, or Seminarian of the Day: Posted on the bulletin boards are calendars with the names of Priests, Deacons, and Seminarians. As you come into the church, you may want to look at the calendar and pray for the designated person of the day.

Spiritual Notes:

The prophet Isaiah speaks words of promise and hope to Israel in today's reading. "Darkness" is replaced with "a great light" with abundant joy and great rejoicing. Zebulon and Naphtali, lands captured by the Assyrians earlier in the eighth century B.C., are promised deliverance. Israel's hope rests in the birth of a child, a royal child, who we see in verses after our reading today will sit upon David's throne. God has not abandoned the people: the Lord has smashed "the rod of the taskmaster." Paul writes to the church in Corinth to address some problems he has heard about. It has been reported to me that there are rivalries among you. Groups are claiming loyalty to Paul, Apollos, Cephas, or Christ, who gave His life for us and in whose name we were baptized. Our allegiance is to Him, not to His apostles. He addresses this important issue along with several other immediate concerns. Later in the letter, He says that other matters can wait until He visits them again. The fact that much of Jesus' ministry takes place in Galilee is significant. Galilee is up north, far from Jerusalem, its temple and the religious establishment. Because Galilee is separated from Judea, many in Jerusalem look down on it: "Galilee of the Gentiles" is not a complimentary title. But the people of Galilee turn out to be more receptive to Jesus' message than those in Judea. For Matthew, this is a fulfillment of a prophecy from Isaiah. As Jesus' ministry unfolds, God's promises continue to be fulfilled.

For Reflection: How can I foster unity in my local church? How can I help bring God's great light to contemporary places of darkness and gloom?

Please keep in your prayers, Josephine Javins, age 97, who died on Thursday, January 12, 2017 and Lucy Cramlet, age 90, who died on Sunday, January 15, 2017. May their souls and the souls of all our faithful departed rest in peace. Please also keep their families in your prayers.

The flowers in front of the Holy Family are in loving memory of Bob Wagner from his family.

2017 Contribution Statements are prepared.

If you need one for tax purposes, please call the Parish Office. We will be happy to mail it to you.

Why am I here? Where am I going? What should I be doing, once I figure all this out? We are all searching for more, and St. Joseph is providing a way for all to continue that search, regardless of where we are on our path. How? With Alpha!

The course starts on Sunday, January 29th, and runs for 10 weeks. Small groups meet during the nine-week sessions in a relaxed setting for a meal, to view a video, then gather in informal small groups for an informal discussion about the video's content.

The Amazing Parish Prayer

Heavenly Father, You have gathered us together as a parish to be Your visible life in our world. Here we unite in worship, proclaim Your Word, celebrate the Eucharist, and are sent forth to share Your love and make disciples. Lord, we take Your Great Commission seriously and long for our parish to be so on fire that we draw people to You. Help us in that endeavor, as we strive to work together - ordained, religious and laity. Please make our parish amazing, through Your power and Your grace. Amen.

Please remember in your prayers, all the sick, homebound, and recovering in our parish. Also, pray for those coping with physical or mental conditions.
