Thank you, Kevin!

Today we say a fond farewell to our Director of Music, Mr. Kevin Kutz, as he embarks on a new chapter in his life as Director of Music for St. Mary Catholic Church in Massillon.

I had the honor of meeting Kevin when he was one of several candidates to apply for the Director of Music position here shortly after my arrival at St. Joseph's in 2010.

Since then, Kevin has raised the level of music ministry in our parish to a level of excellence that is rarely experienced in a church of our size. Or any size for that matter. He has worked so very hard to incorporate the best of both traditional and contemporary music as well as displaying a remarkable gift for choosing the right music for the right liturgical celebration seamlessly connecting the music selection with the Scripture readings. He has done a wonderful job in incorporating our young people into the various liturgical celebrations by forming our Singing Saints and teen choirs. He pioneered the use of young people as cantors allowing many of our youth to feel truly connected to the spiritual and liturgical life of our parish.

He has shown his faithfulness to our Hispanic community as well by forming the Guadalupe Choir that has grown and accomplished so much over the last several years becoming an indispensable part of our Hispanic ministry and outreach.

Kevin and Beth Houze have worked tirelessly to ensure that our Sunday and Funeral Choirs perform at a level that brings a real sense of both joy and solemnity to our Masses and other liturgical services.

He has worked vigorously behind the scenes to incorporate the liturgical life of St. Joseph's with that of the larger community by organizing musical events such as The Messiah, Lessons and Carols, Tenebrae and a number of recitals that allow people outside of our parish to come and enjoy not only a wide variety of quality music and local talent, but also allows us to share with others in Tuscarawas County our common faith while at the same time opening our doors for many people to experience real hospitality and the beauty of St. Joseph's.

As much as we will miss Kevin, we wish him all of the best in his new undertaking.

Thank you, Kevin, and may God bless you in your ministry as we have been blessed by your dedication and devotion to the music ministry of St. Joseph Church.

Fr. Jimmy

Please remember in your prayers, all the sick, homebound, and recovering in our parish. Also, pray for those coping with physical or mental conditions.

Spiritual Notes:

The Book of Leviticus is filled with laws, primarily for the priests but also for all the people. As the third of five books of the Torah, its message to the people is concerned with establishing a way of life based on God's commands: "Be holy, for I, the Lord, your God, am holy." Because they will be spending 40 years together in the wilderness, God also gives them guidance concerning how to live with each other. Take no revenge and cherish no grudge, you shall love your neighbor as yourself. Paul reminds the Corinthians that the Spirit of God dwells in you. This means that we live in this world, but we belong to God. Because we are each a temple of God we are holy. We are called to live lives guided by God's Spirit. Therefore we should not view ourselves in terms of the wisdom of this world, which is foolishness in the eyes of God. In the Gospel today Jesus continues his exposition on the commandments offering his interpretation of how they should be lived. Though Moses said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth, Jesus' command is to offer no resistance to one who is evil. The command to hate your enemy that Jesus refers to is not found in the teaching of Moses, but it has been found in the Dead Sea Scrolls and would have been known to Jesus' contemporaries. Jesus calls us to not only love our neighbor but also love our enemies and pray for those who persecute us. We are children of God, who sends the sun and rain to both the bad and the good, so we should follow this example.

For reflection: What does it mean to me to be called to be holy? How does loving my enemy change my attitude toward that person?

The flowers in front of the Holy Family are in loving memory of Tommie Meyers Palmer, from her friends.

Please keep in your prayers, Kiyomi "Kay" Ginnetti, age 88 who died on Tuesday, February 7, 2017. May her soul and all the souls of our faithful departed rest in peace. Please also keep Kay's family in your prayers.

Cuaresma comienza con el Miércoles de Ceniza y es un tiempo de Oración, penitencia y ayuno. Cuarenta días que la iglesia nos pide un cambio a nuestras vidas. El ayuno consiste en hacer una sola comida al día y la abstinencia es no comer carne. Este es un modo de pedirle perdón a Dios por haberlo ofendido y decirle que queremos cambiar de vida para agradecerle siempre.

Notas Espirituales:

El libro de Levítico está lleno de leyes, sobre todo para los sacerdotes (que son de la tribu "Levi"), sino también para todas las personas. Como el tercero de los cinco libros de la Torá, su mensaje a la gente tiene que ver con el establecimiento de una forma de vida basada en los mandamientos de Dios: "Sed santos, porque yo, el Señor, vuestro Dios, soy santo". Porque ellos van a pasar 40 años unidos en el desierto, Dios también les da orientación sobre cómo vivir uno: "No tomes venganza ni guardes ningún rencor... / Amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo". Pablo recuerda a los corintios que "el Espíritu de Dios habita en vosotros". Esto significa que vivimos en este mundo, pero nosotros pertenecemos a Dios. Debido a que somos cada uno, un "templo de Dios", somos santos. Somos llamados a una vida guiada por el Espíritu de Dios. Por lo tanto no debemos vernos a nosotros mismos en cuanto a la sabiduría de este mundo, que es "locura a los ojos de Dios". En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús continúa su exposición sobre los mandamientos, ofreciendo su interpretación de cómo deben ser vividas. Si Moisés dijo: "Ojo por ojo y diente por diente", el mandato de Jesús es la de "ofrecer ninguna resistencia a uno que está mal". El mandamiento de "odiarás a tu enemigo" que Jesús se refiere no se encuentra en la enseñanza de Moisés, pero se ha encontrado en los Pergaminos del Mar Muerto y habría sido conocido por los contemporáneos de Jesús. Jesús nos llama a no sólo amar a nuestro prójimo, sino también "ama a tus enemigos / y orad por los que os persiguen". Somos hijos de Dios, que envía el sol y la lluvia tanto a "los malos y a los buenos", por lo que debemos seguir este ejemplo.

Para la reflexión: ¿Qué significa para mí ser llamados a ser santos? ¿Cómo amar a mi enemigo cambia mi actitud hacia esa persona?

Por favor, recuerde en su oración, a todos los enfermos, al salir de casa, y la recuperación de nuestra parroquia. Además, orar por aquellos que sufren de condiciones físicas o mentales.
