Spiritual Notes:

Christ is Risen! Alleluia! Today's Gospel reminds us that believing is seeing things differently. John tells us that the disciples, who are hiding for fear of the Jews, are visited by the risen Christ on Easter night, the first day of the week. For our evangelist, believed that Jesus leads to life in his name. This is the goal of his text. These things are written that you may come to believe. John's text provides revelation that fosters faith leading to salvation. We see in the scene with Thomas that when Jesus reveals himself to him, Thomas makes a strong statement of faith by declaring Jesus my Lord and my God. In Acts Luke gives us a picture of the early church in Jerusalem. Their life is dedicated to prayer and breaking bread in their homes, and early term for the Eucharist. Nourished by this meal, which for them is a way of being in the presence of the risen Lord, their lives progress in holiness and every day the Lord added to their number. Believing, they come to approach the world in a different way. Their faith leads them to a new way of life on earth, which leads others to desire to join them. In Peter's letter we hear of the new birth to a living home we receive from God through the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The author speaks of faith even though you do not see him, encouraging us to preserve in that faith even in the face of various trials. Like John, this writer tells us that the goal of your faith is the salvation of your souls.

For reflection: How has God's revelation strengthened my faith? Do I see things differently because of my faith? How is this manifest in my life?

Notas Espirituales:

¡Cristo ha resucitado! ¡Aleluya! El evangelio de hoy nos recuerda que creer es ver las cosas de manera diferente. Juan nos dice que los discípulos, quienes se ocultan "por miedo o los Judíos," son visitados por el Cristo resucitado en la noche de Pascua, "el primer día de la semana." Para nuestro evangelista, la creencia en Jesús lleva "vida en su nombre"; este es el objetivo de su texto: "Estas cosas se han escrito para que creáis." El texto de Juan ofrece la revelación que fomenta la fe, lo que lleva a la salvación. Vemos en la escena con Tomas que cuando Jesús se revela a él, Tomas hace una fuerte declaración de fe al declarar a Jesús "Señor mío y Dios mío." En Hechos, Lucas nos da una imagen de la iglesia primitiva en Jerusalén. Su vida está dedicada a la oración y "partir el pan" en sus hogares, y a principios de la Eucaristía. Alimentados por esta comida, que para ellos es una manera de estar en la presencia del Señor resucitado, sus vidas progresan en santidad, y "cada día el Señor agregaba a la comunidad a los que querían salvar." Creyendo, vienen a ver el mundo de una manera diferente. Su fe les lleva a una nueva forma de vida en la tierra, lo que lleva a otros a desear unirse a ellos.

En la carta de Pedro nos enteramos del "nuevo nacimiento a una esperanza viva" que recibimos de Dios "por la resurrección de Jesucristo." El autor habla de la fe "a pesar de que no lo ven," que nos anima a perseverar en la fe, incluso en la cara de "diversas pruebas." Al igual que Juan, el escritor nos dice que "la meta de vuestra fe" es "la salvación de vuestras almas."

Para reflexionar: ¿Cómo a revelación de Dios fortaleció mi fe? ¿Veo las cosas de manera diferente debido a mi fe? ¿Cómo se manifiesta esto en mi vida?

Por favor, recuerde en su oración, a todos los enfermos, al salir de casa, y la recuperación de nuestra parroquia. Además, orar por aquellos que sufren de condiciones físicas o mentales.
